

Little Bucks Foam Privacy Policy

Effective 1/1/2020

When submitting your contact form we insure you we will not share your information with anyone or a third party source. We will use your information for the sole purpose of contacting you on services requested. We will use your information to contact you once submitted to our website. Please only share information you are comfortable sharing with us, basic information is all we request. Once an estimate is made for you, your information will be saved on our trusted wave platform.

-Information we collect includes

- Name
- Phone Number
- Email Address
- Address of the structure that will be insulated.